

FRENCH - INTERMEDIATE, MICROCREDENTIAL

The Saint Louis University microcredential in intermediate French consists of 6 credit hours. Satisfactory completion of the required courses allows the SLU student to develop the skills to conduct intermediate-level communication in French by acquiring appropriate vocabulary, grammar, reading, writing, listening comprehension, speaking capabilities, and an introduction to French-speaking culture.

SLU's microcredential in intermediate French aligns itself with all other programs in the Department of Linguistics, Literatures, and Cultures in that it is designed to help students gain a broader understanding of themselves, as well as the languages and cultures of others. This inherently fosters an understanding and appreciation for diverse perspectives and represents a crucial virtue in today's globalized world.

Madrid

Both FREN 1020 and FREN 2010 are regularly offered at Saint Louis University and Saint Louis University-Madrid. Thus, a SLU-St. Louis student may complete the microcredential in intermediate French at SLU-Madrid (partially or entirely), and a SLU-Madrid student may complete it in St. Louis (partially or entirely).
